

What is the target group for examination?

Students applying for the first grade of primary school.

What is the purpose of conducting the examination before joining first grade of primary school?

Ensuring the completion of basic vaccinations, evaluating the student's overall health; thus contributing to detecting health problems and facilitating their treatment and promoting the health of students.

Where examination is conducted?

It is conducted at PHCs.

Which documents are required for examining may child?

The basic vaccination certificate.

What are the outcomes of examination?

Determining education stage of students (general education – special education).